DEAR SIR:

Friend Chapman:

Yours recd — leavy $3.56 your due — When I commenced rechanging with you I supposed you would try & make our bizant to some thing so the first thing I took from a lot of 8.00 $5.00 work whether I had immediate use for them or not — & you keep from 50 to $1 out of $6 or $8 & ask me to send you more sheets & only keep stamps just as fast as you sell them for cash to your customers — then you have the "check" to ask me to send you $3 or $4 rare postage in exchg for common scarce reds — aren't you glad enough to get any kind of postage for reds — I have sent you $30 — in all worth of stamps & you have kept only $1.50 out of the lot is this going to pay me — now come put your wits about you & behave yourself — Yours R. M. Weston
